Ibrahim, Sultan and Ileana, Sultana Outlands

Gracious greetings unto Our populace during this festive holiday season. We, Ibrahim and Ileana, wish you all the very best in the New Year.

We would like to thank all those good gentles that made our time at Chang'an Market and Hunters Feast a memorable delight. With the Holiuay Season in full swing, please join us at the upcoming revelry of Our Baronies 12th Nights and for the Music and Dance of our talented artisans that will be teaching and performing at Winter Oasis. During this time of Peace, we truly experience the gentle arts and gracious hospitality that Our Kingdom is renowned for.

As War approaches it is Our duty and honor to guide Our people in the harsher art of war. It is with this in mind that we make plans to take our caravan to the distant lands of Atenveldt. Our valiant warriors would appear mere thugs were it not for the gracious support of their Baronies, Household, Artisans, and lets not forget, our Gentle Water Bearers that accompany them. With our Noble Cousins of Artamesia by our side, and all true heroes who would join us and stand against the might of Atenvendt and Caid, we will do such thunderous glory that the heavens will shake with our deeds.

In preparation for this extraordinary event, We would ask all good gentles to support the Estrella War effort. There are many ways that you can serve your fellow Outlanders. By uniting with your brethren at War Practice, volunteering with friends from other kingdoms at Estrella, or bringing your arts to the A&S competition, you uphold in all ways the honor of your Kingdom. We can promise you that this years Estrella will be a time of ferocious fun on the battlefield, challenging delights within the classes, and gracious hospitability with friends old and new. For Ourselves, we will be hosting a Hafla (Middle-Eastern Party) like the world has never seen, for our drummers and dancers are jewels beyond compare and a priceless treasure.

Come join us at Estrella. Be joyful, be kind and find comfort and solace here among friends both old and new.

Ibrahim Ileana

The Kingdom of Lochac is happy to announce:

THE KNOWN WORLD DANCE SYMPOSIUM (KWDS) 5

Master Delbert von Strassburg
Seneschal, Kingdom of Lochac
Society for Creative Anachronism Australia

The Known World Dance and Music Symposium (KWDS or KWDMS) is the SCA's primary biennial dance and music event. This is the fifth KWDS to be held – previous KWDS/KWDMS events have been held in New Orleans LA, St Louis MO, Boston MA, and Dallas/Fort Worth TX.

KWDS covers the period in history from c. 1450 (and earlier) through to 1650 or thereabouts.

Music styles covered follow the same time period, with a focus on secular and dance music.

In the time of Queen Elizabeth, nobles whiled away the long winter nights with plays, music, dancing and feasting. As the snow swirls outside, hearts are warm and spirits merry as the finest performers of the Barony and Kingdom display their talents for the delight of all. There will be a stage for plays and formal music, but "wandering minstrels" will be welcome to stroll about and entertain as well. Members of the populace will be given tokens, with which they may "tip" their favorite performers; at the end of the day, there will be a prize for the performer who has collected the most tips. As last year, informal card and board gaming tables will be available during the afternoon, for the enjoyment of those who would wish to try their luck. There will be dancing, in the form of a masked ball, which will take place during the afternoon. Come dressed as someone you are not - saint or sinner, historical figure or legendary character. Merchants will once again be welcome to display their wares for an admiring public. What better place to pick up those last-minute Twelfth Night gifts?

Come prepared for all sorts of good fun!

The feast will be prepared by Mistress Elaina de Sinistre, of Dragonsspine, whose feasts are well-known for being hearty and delicious. She plans to prepare an English feast, to be served in two courses. We also plan to provide lunch for all who attend the event. Mistress Catrin von Berlin (a.k.a. Gwen-Cat) has graciously agreed to be in charge of lunch, so rest assured that the food will be hot, plentiful, and delicious! Menus will be published as they become finalized.

Watch this space! More information coming soon!

Directions: From the north and south, take I-25 to north Denver (Northglenn) and exit east on 104th Ave. Continue on 104th to Riverdale Road, about 3.5 miles. Go north on Riverdale Road to East 126th Ave/Henderson Road (a little under 4 miles). At East 126th/Henderson Road, go east 1/2 mile to the fairgrounds entrance, which will be on your left (the north side of the road). Look for the large, domed building!

A Missive from the SCA Board of Directors

The SCA Board of Directors is currently accepting applications for the position of Society Copyright Deputy, a deputy to the Society Chronicler. This is an unpaid position normally requiring less than 5 hours per week.

The Copyright Deputy acts as a resource for the Society on all issues of copyright law. He or she may be consulted by the Corporate Office, Society Chronicler, Society Seneschal, or other corporate and Society officers on questions of copyright for both print and electronic publications. The Copyright Deputy should either be a legal professional, or someone with experience in the publishing industry, journalism, or academia concerning copyright questions. Basic familiarity with copyright law outside the United States (particularly Canada and the European Union) would also be an asset. Other qualifications for the position include excellent written and oral communication skills and the ability to explain copyright policy and law to laymen. Familiarity with SCA publications is also required.

The Copyright Deputy reports to the Society Chronicler and is required to report quarterly, as well as to be available via the Internet to answer questions.

Resumes (professional and Society, including offices held and awards received) must be sent to the attention of the Board at the SCA Corporate Office, P.O. Box 360789, Milpitas, CA 95036-0789, or electronically to resumes@sca.org with a copy to chronicler@sca.org. Resumes must be received by March 15, 2005.

Site Fee (including Feast): $15.00 (adult), Children age 7 - 16 $8.00, under 7 free.
There will be a $3.00 non-member surcharge.
Site Opens: 9:00 am / Site Closes: 11:00 pm
Site is wet when guard present. Period containers, please.

Sir Thomas Malory immortalized the life and times of King Arthur and The Knights of the Round Table in their search for the Holy Grail in his book "Mort d' Arthur." Now, in the deep of winter, is the best time for the telling of such tales. Therefore, Their Excellencies, Sir Roger and Lady Constance invite you to come to the Citadel- the home of the Grail- and share with us the" Glory of Camelot" as described by the 15th century writer. Those wishing to have their arms displayed should bring them to the feast hall by early afternoon.

WAR!! practice will commence at 10:00 AM at the traditional site of Memorial Park, Grant and Copper Streets. Weather conditions and temperatures here in the "deep south" are much like those encountered at Estrella. A hearty lunch of soup and bread will be served by Lady Kat. Fighting will continue until all foes are vanquished. Showers will be available @ Loretto for those fighters not wishing to offend their dinner companions.

Should the Crown choose to attend, court will be held at Their Majesties leisure. After court, a sumptuous feast of culinary delights will be prepared by THL Warmin and his talented crew. Appetizer trays will contain: pickled eggs, olives, cheeses, pickled beets, bread and butter. The main courses will consist of: baked ham and cabbage, meat pies and root vegetables, roasted yard bird (chicken) with peas and rice. During dinner, we will be entertained with tales of bravery and ballads of love by the fabulous Celtic band Gallowglass (imported direct from Hibernia!). Afterwards, perhaps a bit of court dancing.

To top off the evening, we are pleased to announce a bit of whimsy- a dessert competition- Merlin's Dessert Board! Naturally, because Merlin was able to see far into the future, as well as the past, you may use any ingredient available to you (chocolate, vanilla, etc.) Judging will take place by the kingdom's most discriminating palates, and prizes will be awarded!

Remember, there are 90 feast reservations available. Reservations strongly encouraged! Payment can be made at the door. Make checks payable to "SCA_ Citadel of the Southern Pass"

Directions: Take I- 10 to the Raynolds exit. Go north on Raynolds past Montana St. until you see the SCA signs for the Loretto Academy.

A block of rooms has been reserved at the Travelodge on Montana St. for Jan 14, 15. Call Arturo Hernandez at 915- 726- 1368. Mention the Society for Creative Anachronism when making your reservations.

Herald's Office - Rampart Herald

Unto the Outlands does Alia Marie de Blois, Rampart Herald, send wishes for a fine winter season.

This month, I bear tidings of the June 2004 Letter of Acceptance and Return from Laurel, which contains decisions on items sent to Laurel on the February 2004 Letter of Intent. As a note of clarification, the heraldic titles whose degree were changed were previously Pursuivants. This change makes all the Kingdom heraldic staff titles of the same degree, Herald.

Laurel accepted and registered the following items. No items were returned on this LoAR. Congratulations!

Ailleann inghean Fhiodhbhuidhe. Name. *

* Please see the LoAR for further details regarding changes to your name or blazon, and/or requests on drawing the device in the future.

This is my final missive as Rampart Herald. At the end of the year, this position will be taken over by Her Ladyship Sorcha MacLeod, White Stag Principal Herald, until a new Rampart Herald is chosen. Local heralds, please treat her as well as you have treated me and remember to send your submissions packets to her instead of me.

I thank the Crown, White Stag, and the populace of the Outlands for the opportunity to serve both Kingdom and heraldry and to bring both closer together.

The Honorable Lady Alia Marie de Blois

A New SCA List

The list is for people in the SCA to find new homes for old SCA items, or to find a SCA item free. All items posted must be free. Members may also post items for trade but no money may be exchanged for trade! Membership is free. This could help groups boost number of people at events, help new comers to the SCA, and anyone who want something or wants to get rid of something. What am I getting out of it, nothing; I just think it will be fun. This site will not survive without membership, so please take a look.

Herald's Office - White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings!

First, Domesday reports are due on or before 15 January 2005. All heraldic officers are required to submit a Domesday report. At-large heralds are encouraged to submit a year-end report to either their local herald or myself, or both.

All heralds' Domesday reports should include:
-full roster information
-a summary of all your personal heraldic activity for the year
-any comments, questions, or suggestions you have for White Stag

Domesdays for local heralds should include:
-a financial summary of all funds handled in 2004
-a summary of all submissions through your group in 2004
-a list of events held by your group during the year, and what heraldry happened at each
-a list of all awards given to people in your group over the year, and of all awards given in courts held in your group
-full roster information for at-large heralds in your group, and a summary of each of their activities; specify your emergency replacement deputy
-any goals for your office for the next year

Domesdays for kingdom staff should include:
-a financial summary of any funds handled in 2004
-a summary of your office's activities for 2004
-roster information for your emergency replacement deputy
-any goals for your office for the next year

Second - remember that THLady Alia Marie has stepped down as Rampart and all branches should be sending submissions to me, at: Tammy Ackerson, 107 S. Taylor St. Unit B, Laramie, WY 82070. I would like to commend Alia Marie for her work as Rampart, and I thank her for her dedication to that office. Anyone interested in taking this office on in four to six months should write me - we expect to have the housekeeping tasks and the Tools To Make Rampart's Life Easier finished by then. Consider the necessary skills and resources: reliable internet/e-mail access; sufficient space for the files, equipment, and library; ability to work with several rolling deadlines each month; ability to maintain files in an organized fashion; and the ability to host monthly meetings to make decisions on submissions. The office requires a fairly significant time commitment in the first and third weeks of each month, but does not require significant travel, although Rampart is encouraged to attend Known World Heralds and Scribes, Outlands Heralds and Scribes, and Stagscon. The tools in process should reduce the amount of time needed to perform some routine tasks.

Third - award recommendations are always appreciated by the Crown and the Coronets - please take a moment today to write a recommendation for a deserving person you know. To find out what awards someone already has, or to read the charter for the award to learn what it recognizes: http://www.unm.edu/%7Ekballar/heraldry/wimble.html or send e-mail to wimble@outlandsheralds.org. The Outlands on-line award recommendation form: http://www.outlands.org/AwardRec/recommend.html or send mail by post or e-mail (if permitted) directly to the appropriate ruling nobles. Remember, anyone can recommend anyone else for any award.

Fourth - the Baronies of Unser Hafen and Caer Galen are hosting Known World Heralds and Scribes 2005. More information is available at: http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/kwhs/KWHSWebpage.html or e-mail the autocrat, Mistress Rossilin, at kwhss@outlandsheralds.org.

Finally, this month, I remind you that now is a good time to be working on heraldic display projects for WAR and the upcoming tournament season - check out the Outlands Heraldic Display group for people who can help you with your projects: outlandsdisplay@yahoogroups.com.

Yours in glad service and duty,
The Honorable Lady Sorcha MacLeod

Earl Marshall's Office - Kingdom Earl Marshall

Greetings from the Earl Marshal's Office.

For all you fighters, here are a few reminders about Estrella War:

- Have your "Green Card" up to date; bring it with you to armor inspection.
- Bring your membership card to armor inspection.
- Minor Fighters have all your paperwork with you AT ALL TIMES!
- Bring all your weapons to armor inspection to have them inspected.
- Familiarize yourself with the battle scenarios and rules.
- Make sure your armor is combat ready, fix and repair your gear.
- OFFER TO HELP MARSHAL AT THE WAR!
- Drink plenty of liquids before and during fighting.
- Have FUN and BE SAFE!

Enjoy Estrella to the fullest. It is all the Kingdom Earl Marshals' wish that battles begin on time, go smoothly and safely. There will be plenty of battles, pace yourself so that you may enjoy three full days of glorious warfare!

Be prepared to move after a battle is completed to your new rally point. There will be banners on the field for you to find the muster point. Outlands will be wearing RED tape, so the banner you will be following for muster will also be colored RED.

Again, have fun and be safe. Kill many for your Kingdom and die with Honor, so you can get up and do it all again and again...!

Sir Lavan Longwalker

Earl Marshall's Office - Kingdom Marshall of Fence

Estrella is almost upon us, though as I sit and write this, there is snow on the ground in al-Barran and we are still practicing.

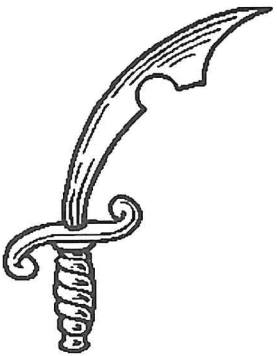
With the War coming up, I wanted to bring up a couple of points that have come up repeatedly recently.

What we do is a martial art. We strive to deliver the lightest of touches – that is the true expression of skill on the field. But it is not always possible, in all circumstances, to do so.

A fighter who continuously hits hard needs further training. An occasional hard hit is to be expected.

With War, and large melee's coming up, I ask everyone to remember this. Strive to hit as lightly as you can; train for it; work for it. And do not escalate the power with which you hit in melee.

But at the same time, try and accept a reasonable level of power. If it happens too much, speak to a marshal. But we are all adults, and we have all consented to let our friends poke at us with long metal rods. Do not let this cause us not to be friends with those across the field from us this War.



Don Charles Robert Blackstone

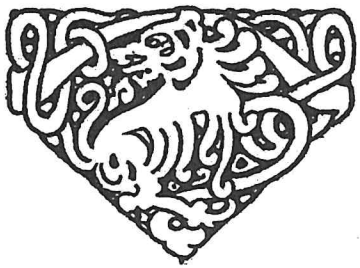
Seneschal's Office - Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings to the Outlands from Leah de Montgomerie.

Happy New Year!!! Is your new year's resolution to become more active in the SCA. How about serving as local or a Kingdom officer? A great place to start is offering to be a deputy to an existing officer; you can learn more about the Kingdom and its function by giving the Crown the benefit of your service. Speaking of service; now is a great time to volunteer for Estrella War. Contact Her Excellency Constance if you are interested in volunteering. Your service at the War contributes to everyone's enjoyment and provides a direct monetary benefit to your Kingdom. To aid the War effort be sure to purchase a War t-shirt if you haven't already. Aside from being stylish all proceeds will go to the War fund. The t-shirts will be available throughout the winter feast season.

His Excellency Sir Hoegaarden has offered his services as Emergency Deputy to the Kingdom Seneschal, all other deputies of this office have graciously assented to continue in their posts. Please look to them as my representatives in your area.

Be safe in your travels and generous in your service,
Mistress Leah de Montomerie



Position Available: President of the SCA, Inc.

The SCA Board of Directors is currently accepting applications for the position of President of the SCA Inc. This is an unpaid position requiring approximately 10-20 hours per week.

The President is the principal spokesperson for the SCA. The President may sign and authorize such instruments as he or she deems appropriate to the conduct of the SCA's proper business. The President oversees much of the day-to-day operation of the Society, and supervises many of the Society officers. The President is responsible for legal matters including contracts, merchandising, and trademarks. The President may be expected to perform other duties as assigned by the Board.

Qualifications for the position include excellent written and oral communication skills, the ability to work independently to deadlines, and the ability to prioritize tasks. Organizational ability and problem-solving skills are a must. Prior experience at the Corporate level of the SCA, Inc. is highly recommended.

Applicants must be available to attend quarterly meetings of the Board of Directors, typically held over a Friday and a Saturday. They must also be available for approximately four conference call meetings per year, typically during weekday evenings. As a great deal of the Board's business occurs via the Internet, immediate access to a computer, printer, and email is a requirement.

Resumes (professional and Society, including offices held and awards received) must be sent to the attention of the Board at the SCA Corporate Office, P.O. Box 360789, Milpitas, CA 95036-0789, or electronically to resumes@sca.org. Resumes must be received by March 15, 2005. Questions regarding this position may be directed to Linda Moore, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the SCA, Inc. Ms. Moore may be reached by phone at 414-962-4785, or via email at chairman@sca.org.

Laurel Sovereign of Arms is Sought

The Laurel Sovereign of Arms (Laurel) is the principal heraldic officer of the Society and the head of the College of Arms. Laurel is responsible for fostering the study and practice of heraldry, processing submissions, and overseeing the heraldic activities of the Known World. The office entails the coordination and management of a large group of volunteers scattered across the world. A detailed job description is found in section IX of the Administrative Handbook of the College of Arms at http://www.sca.org/heraldry/laurel/admin.html#IX.

The current structure of the Laurel office splits the submissions work between two main deputies: Pelican Sovereign of Arms (decisions on name submissions) and Wreath Sovereign of Arms (decisions on armory submissions). Other structures for the office are acceptable. The Board will accept applications from an individual or a team to perform the duties of these offices. The current Wreath and Pelican may be willing to continue in the positions, but each applicant should discuss that possibility with them.

Laurel and staff are unpaid positions. Laurel and staff duties currently require approximately 20 hours a week (primarily submissions processing), plus about 5-10 hours a week for Laurel management tasks. Also required is office space sufficient for 18 filing cabinets, five boxes of "currently in process" submissions, 10 boxes of binders with "archive" copies of armory, and two bookshelves of assorted books, etc.), plus the computers, computer programs and documentation, backup tapes and disks, printer, photocopier, and flatbed color scanner. Although the files, books and equipment must be easily available, they do not need to be in the same location.

The position requires the ability to manage a distributed staff for what is equivalent to a small business. The ideal applicant will have the ability to meet tight deadlines and produce a Laurel letter of Acceptance and Return monthly, basic financial skills including the ability to define and operate within a budget, and the ability to interact with people at all levels of the Society. Additional desired skills include: armory and onomastic knowledge, computer literacy, and word processing skills. A local staff to assist in the weekly filing, and time and ability to travel, have proven useful as well. Email access is required.

Resumes must be made in writing to Laurel Resume, SCA Inc., Box 360789, Milpitas CA 95036, or to resumes@sca.org. Resumes must be received by March 31, 2005.
